This boat is still in good condition. The saloon and cockpit open on to each other with large sliding doors and windows making for remarkable ventilation and easy use of the galley whether you wish to eat inside or outside. The galley is on the port side, which leaves a lot of space for the table and bench seating with enough room for 8 people. The beds are extra-wide (2x1.40 - 1.50m) compared to other boats of the same size. The sail plan is generous with an upwind area of 79 m².
