Majroa 103 will allow her guests to enjoy the alfresco lifestyle while aboard. Showcasing a luxurious flybridge charter guests can dine alfresco with the cruising destination as the backdrop as well as sunbathe on the large sunpads. With a removable Bimini top, charter guests will have the option for sun and shade as desired. The luxury charter yacht provides an additional alfresco dining option on the main deck aft. A few steps down from the main deck aft is a sensational swim platform, where charter guests can dive into the serene blue water and spend the afternoon enjoying the yacht's array of water toys.

Motor yacht Majroa 103's interior evokes relaxation. As soon as charter guests step inside, the light, airy ambiance will make them feel at home. The luxury yacht showcases a contemporary, elegant styling that is adorned with modern light oak, light-colored, neutral furnishings and dark wood accents. The main deck has a desirable layout, which allows for children to watch TV on big screen satellite HDTV while the adults enjoy a delectable meal by the chef in the formal dining. Furthermore, the charter yacht has an exceptional volume throughout. The raised pilothouse design provides the additional volume for the separate formal dining and day head on the main deck.

Charter yacht Majroa 103 welcomes eight guests in the comfort of four nicely appointed staterooms. The yacht's master stateroom, located amidships on the lower deck, provides the utmost comfort. The stateroom features a plush double bed and en-suite bath with his-and-hers sinks, a shower and a Jacuzzi tub — it is adorned with fine Italian marble. Majroa's additional guest staterooms include a queen VIP stateroom and two twin-bed staterooms that are all accompanied by an en-suite bath with Italian marble and its own AV system.

While aboard, the crew will provide guests five-star service and ensure everyone has a holiday to remember. Additionally, the motor yacht's layout allows the yacht's crewmembers to move around easily while providing the utmost privacy to guests.
